Our Mission
Our Principles

Building Balanced Men

Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Love

Our Practice

Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Sound Mind, Sound Body

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity Strategic Plan

Growth	Development	Housing	Volunteers	Partnership	Advancement
Recruit, Retain, and	Prepare Members for a	Provide Quality Residential	Support Local, Regional,	Strengthen Partnership	Advance the SigEp
Graduate Balanced Men	Lifetime of Success	Learning Communities	and National Volunteers	with Higher Education	Experience
				The state of the s
<ul> <li>Recruitment is a year-round practice at all chapters</li> <li>The Balanced Man Scholarship is used to recognize, reward, and recruit the best men on every campus</li> <li>Mutually agreed-upon recruitment and manpower goals are aggressively pursued</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>The BMP is fundamental to the membership experience at all chapters</li> <li>The all-campus grade point average is surpassed by each SigEp chapter</li> <li>All members develop the leadership, communication, and social skills to excel personally and professionally upon graduation</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Chapter houses are         Residential Learning         Communities designed for         safety, academic         excellence, and overall         collegiate success</li> <li>Chapter houses are         occupied to capacity at         market rates</li> <li>Each chapter facility         maintains a capital         reserve and plans for</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Every chapter has a trained and committed AVC, Chapter Counselor, and BM Steward</li> <li>AVCs excel in the areas of corporate health, asset management, alumni cultivation, and undergraduate mentoring</li> <li>AVCs recruit and involve parents, university faculty and staff, and other non-</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>SigEp will be recognized as an organization that lives by its values and complements the university's mission and objectives</li> <li>SigEp conducts and participates in meaningful research</li> <li>The National Fraternity regularly seeks advice and guidance from members</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Potential donors understand the impact and importance of Fraternity programs</li> <li>Chapter and national giving opportunities are made readily available to donors with a wide variety of charitable interests</li> <li>Donor participation and total charitable contributions at the local</li> </ul>
Membership and chapter standards are clearly defined and enforced at all chapters      Chapter retention and graduation rates consistently exceed the campus average      SigEp will provide a meaningful experience to more undergraduates on more campuses every year	<ul> <li>Every deserving member finds employment and opportunity in his chosen career</li> <li>The teachings of the Ritual are learned by, taught by, and lived by each member</li> <li>An alumni or community mentoring program exists for upperclassmen at all chapters</li> <li>Service Learning is a meaningful and transformational part of every member's chapter experience and every chapter makes a positive impact in their community</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>significant renovations every 20 years</li> <li>Lending, fundraising, project consulting and management services are available to AVCs</li> <li>All Fraternity assets, including chapter houses, are legally protected and preserved for future members of Sigma Phi Epsilon</li> </ul>	SigEp volunteers  The Renaissance of Brotherhood is used to engage non-members who are passionate about SigEp's mission  Alumni and volunteers are engaged to lend their professional expertise to enhance the SigEp experience at the local, regional, and national level	of academia  SigEp is an active participant in associations for Student and Academic Affairs professionals  Campus-based higher education professionals are regularly and actively involved in chapter, regional, and national programming	and national levels exceed benchmarks for an academic institution of similar size  • Fraternity programs and services are supported by multiple grant providers who see value in SigEp's mission  • Fraternity programs and services are regularly assessed, evaluated, and improved